

MAIN TABLE BARGAINING UPDATE

ON DAIMLER NEGOTIATIONS

APR. 17, 2024

UAW Daimler Family,

On behalf of your DTNA Bargaining Council, our apologies for missing yesterday's update. This update will include a report on both days.

Both yesterday and today we met with the Company throughout the day and exchanged versions of important proposals including

Tuesday:

- continuing to press on historic wage increases
- bad weather attendance excuse
- profit sharing, where we discussed and proposed the current Stellantis profit-sharing model
- improvements to the attendance control policy.

And today:

- improving credit towards a “day of work” towards seniority
- notice and posting of all policies and procedures
- improving the attendance bonus program
- relaxing the late call-in rules
- improvements to the bereavement time off policy

We are happy to report that your Health and Safety, as well as your Benefits representatives, have been very successful in securing tentative agreements on health and safety and benefits provisions, which we will report on soon.

Meanwhile, while we are in the tedious part of collective bargaining, we continue to press for the major historic improvements that are an essential component of a deal:

- historic wage increases
- profit sharing
- increased shift premium
- COLA

And we are united in making sure the locals have the kind of job security necessary to ensure that work is secure here among the Daimler Council.

Stay strong and STAND UP in solidarity with the entire Council.

And we were thrilled to receive support from our brothers and sisters over at Allison Transmission, photo here:
