VOICES FOR ALL

AFL-CIO Constituency Groups

The labor movement is diverse.

Union members work in every sector of the economy and at every skill level. We practice different faiths and represent all races and ethnicities. This diversity gives us strength at both the bargaining table and in our communities, because we have one thing that brings us all together.

A VOICE AT WORK

Labor Council for Latin American Advancement

LCLAA represents 2 million Latino workers. The council organizes working people to protect the rights and expand the influence of Latinos.

lclaa.org

Coalition of Black Trade Unionists

CBTU is an independent voice for black workers within the labor movement, working to achieve economic, political and social justice for every American.

cbtu.org

OUR DIVERSITY also means that the labor movement is inclusive. We create spaces so all voices are heard. The AFL-CIO has created constituency groups that - while open to all union members - serve as organizations that build leadership for their members and reach out to the communities they represent.

Pride At Work

Pride@Work brings together the labor movement and the LGBTQ community in pursuit of social and economic justice.

prideatwork.org

A. Philip Randolph Institute

APRI is an alliance between labor and the civil rights movement. Today, it fights for racial equality and economic justice.
